

NAME	GRADUATION YEAR FROM A CANADIAN MILITARY COLLEGE (IF APPLICABLE)	TERM
Geoff Abthorpe	1993	3 years
Benjamin Boehm	1992	3 years
Soo Choi	2010	3 years
Greg Lamarre	1992	3 years
Bryn Weadon	1979	3 years

Geoff Abthorpe, MSM MSc: was born and resides in Thunder Bay. He has a BA in Commerce from RMC Class of 93, an MSc in the Art and Science of Warfare from the University of Baluchistan, and is a graduate of The National Security Programme. He has commanded in all three Battalions of the Royal Canadian Regiment, The Lake Superior Scottish Regiment and 38 Canadian Brigade group. He is most proud of his work with the Indigenous Community.

Benjamin Boehm - P. Eng.: graduated RMC 1992. Served as an AERE officer before joining Bombardier- starting in engineering and culminating as the head of Commercial Aircraft Programs and President Bombardier Aerospace China. MBA from Schulich School of Business. 34 years in civil and defence aviation industries as operations executive in Canada, the US, Europe, and Asia. Currently COO - Chartright Air Group in Toronto and owner of Viewpoint Equestrian Farm in Ste. Justine de Newton QC. Board experience -Guelph Junction Railway, Therapeutic Riding Associations in Ontario, and Wright Electric - Malta, NY.

Soo Choi (RMC 2010, Civil Engineering): is the Deputy Director at Nature United, a Canadian conservation organization working on solutions for nature and people where she oversees strategy, governance, and operations. Previously, she served 14 years with the Royal Canadian Engineers before moving on to Amazon to lead supply chain and logistic operations. She grew up in Toronto, served out Edmonton, and now spends time between Toronto and Victoria.

Greg Lamarre B.Eng., M.Eng., MBA, P.Eng.: is an RMC class of 92 graduate who following a 14-year career as a MARE (MS) officer joined the Canadian Nuclear Safety Commission in Ottawa in 2002. Over a 22-year career as a nuclear engineer and government executive held progressively more senior positions retiring in 2024 as a Director-General. He also held senior level positions at the Nuclear Energy Agency in Paris from 2010-2013 and 2021-2024. He is currently a nuclear safety consultant residing in Bath ON.

Bryn Weadon, FCPA: graduated from the Collège militaire royal de Saint Jean in 1979 and served for 35 years as a Naval Logistics Officer, retiring in 2009. During his military career, he gained extensive experience in finance, accounting, supply chain management, human resources, and strategic planning. Bryn has been actively involved in alumni governance since 2004 through both the RMC Club and the RMC Foundation. He currently serves as Chairperson of the Royal Military Colleges Alumni Association after previously serving as Treasurer and Vice-Chair.